3rd Annual

southern VOICE

Community Awards

In honor of her accomplishments in building bridges between the many different cultures and races within the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered communities, Southern Voice newspaper has chosen

Aida Rentas

to receive the

Venus Landin Memorial Award

in the year 1995.

To commemorate her achievement, the name Aida Rentas has been engraved on a plaque next to a shade tree planted in honor of Southern Voice Community Award winners. The tree grows in John Howell Park, Atlanta, Georgia.
